

THE CLE ERASMUS MUNDUS MASTER COURSE SELECTED FOR ERASMUS+

After many successful years in the framework of the Erasmus Mundus programme, the European Union has once again recognized the excellence of the CLE Master Course, numbered among the Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degrees (EMJMD).

The program aims to:

Foster excellence, quality improvements, innovation and internationalisation in Higher Education Institutions (HEI);

Increase the quality of the European Higher Education Area (EHEA) by supporting the EU's external action in the higher education field and by attracting the best Master students worldwide;

Improve the level of competences and skills of Master graduates, and in particular the relevance of the Joint Masters for the labour market, through an increased involvement of employers.

ERASMUS MUNDUS MASTER COURSE IN EUROPEAN LITERARY CULTURES - CLE

WHAT IS THE ERASMUS MUNDUS CLE MASTER'S PROGRAM ?

STUDENTS' MOBILITY

CLE students are required to study in two or three universities of the consortium. This will allow them to:

- Achieve an international education;
- Develop a research project;
- Obtain two or three diplomas.

DEGREES

The CLE Master is a two-year full-time academic program.

At the end of the two-year program, after defending their Master's thesis before an international committee, CLE students receive two or three diplomas issued by all the universities of the consortium where they spent at least one semester.

REQUIREMENTS

In order to apply to the CLE Master's program students must have an excellent curriculum; possess a BA-equivalent diploma (180 credits), allowing access to an MA degree; possess a university diploma having attended a class on the following subjects: Literature, Language (Expressions Techniques, Linguistic and Language Sciences, Philology), History, Art History; know at least English (minimum level B1) and the language (minimum level B2) of the University of the consortium where they intend to spend their first academic year.

SCHOLARSHIP AND FINANCIAL SUPPORT

CLE students have the possibility to apply for different financial supports (please visit the CLE website: <https://www.cle.unibo.it>)

APPLICATION ROUNDS

October-January and March-May

CLE ACTIVITIES

CLE students must attend the courses provided under the program. Moreover, additional activities are offered:

- Meetings with Institutions, enterprises and public/private companies: until today several meetings with job market representatives and professionals have been organized. For more information about the project Humanities and Enterprises Annual Dialogue - H.E.A.D. see the dedicated page on the CLE website;
- Editing: students are involved in editing activities under the supervision of a professor;
- Alumni CLE: an Alumni CLE Day is organized periodically during the graduation week in a EU partner university;
- Seminars, workshops, conferences, language courses and cultural activities.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- Doctoral research in any PhD program with a focus on European literatures or cultures. The CLE graduates will be encouraged to pursue their education within the Doctorat d'Études Supérieures Européennes (D.E.S.E), «Les Littératures de l'Europe unie»;
- A career in Cultural institutions or in any local institution or association involving a cultural program. Therefore, the CLE Master's program encourages student contact and collaboration with several local institutions such as Linguistic and Cultural Centers, Foundations, Museums and Publishers;
- A career in the private sector requiring book related skills and/or multicultural skills, in fields such as translation, cultural and linguistic mediation, journalism, literary criticism, broadcasting, copywriting, editing, public relations, project management.
